

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

hate mail sent to A Collector's Bookstore

A Collector's Bookstore

6275 Delmar

Additional Information:

In January 1990 the owner of A Collector's Bookstore, who was Jewish and supportive of the LGBTQ community, received hate mail. The letter was sent from Webster Groves and included swastikas, and hate speech about Jews, blacks, Lesbians, and Gays. The event was investigated by police, and deemed connected to bomb threats made to PFLAG near the same time.

For additional history see: