

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

Midwest Regional Homophile Conference

Christ Church Cathedral (Episcopal)

1210 Locust St.

Additional Information:

In 1967 "homophile" groups (LGBTQ activists) from California, Kansas City, Illinois, and others met in St. Louis to discuss future organizing efforts. St. Louis was selected because no organized group existed in the city, and organizers hoped this would assist local efforts.

For additional history see: