

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

Henry's

115 N. 9th St.

Additional Information:

In USA Confidential (1952), authors mention a bar called "Henry's" as a place where they were solicited by "gay boys." Exact location not given, but listed with other downtown bars and suggests the location was near Pine. Research indicates "Henry's" might be an incarnation of "Al's" on nearby 9th Street, which was for a time owned by a man named Henry Voney.

For additional history see:

Lait, Jack and Lee Mortimer. USA Confidential (Crown, NY: 1952)