

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

verbal assault at Schnuck's

5055 Arsenal St.

Additional Information:

On April 23, 1989, two leaders in the St. Louis gay community were shopping at the grocery store when they were verbally assaulted and thrown out by the night manager.

On March 13, 1990, four gay men were followed through the grocery store by three employees who called them slurs. The employees received disciplinary action and were transferred to another store.

For additional history see: