

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

Trinity Episcopal Church

600 N. Euclid Ave.

Additional Information:

Trinity was one of the first local religious institutions to open its doors to LGBTQ people, and it was an early "Oasis Congregation." The Mandrake Society, St. Louis's first LGBTQ organization, met here for several years after its founding in 1969.

Events hosted here include: rally & PREP meeting about Sexual Misconduct Law, February 14, 1992 and "Speak Out on Discrimination and Hate Crimes" meeting hosted by ACTION, July 21, 1992.

For additional history see: