

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

murder of Larry Lubway

residence of Lubway

800 block of West Cherry Street

Additional Information:

Larry Lubway is found beaten and killed in his townhouse when he did not report to work at O'Fallon [Illinois] High School, November 1980. Lubway was a well-known voice music teacher at the school.

O'Fallon, Illinois officers reported in the first 3 weeks of their investigation they followed over 100 leads, and had assistance of the St. Louis city Major Crimes division. Initial investigations found Lubway's car abandoned several blocks away, and that with no sign of forced entry, his most likely knew his attacker.

Investigation by The Gay News-Telegraph in 1981 uncover his death as one of several unsolved murders of LGBTQ people since 1978.

For additional history see: