

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis
Additional Information Sheet

Location:

murder of Robert (Bob) Rogers

Forest Park

near St. Louis Art Museum

Additional Information:

On March 29, Bob Rogers, a volunteer with the Gay Hotline, was cruising in Forest Park when he was stabbed in the back outside the St. Louis Art Museum. He walked to the Zoo administrative building where he reported the crime to those who assisted him. Rogers later died of his wounds.

For additional history see: